EITHER WRONG OR RIGHT, JUST EXAMINE: EXAMINING THE STATE OF OUR ENVIRONMENT **

Curated by Alpha M. Bruton and Adero Knott

July 10 - September 5, 2021

Bruton and Knott's artistic vision entails an intergenerational curatorial practice that seeks to provide a model for emerging and established curators. Exhibiting artists will examine the state of their environment in society through themes of racism, spirituality, documentation and art as wellness.

SANDRA LEONARD *

August 28 - October 3, 2021

Sandra Leonard was born in Stuttgart, Germany and moved to Texas as a child. The driving force of her work is sculptural costumes. Leonard creates living sculpture in order to challenge traditional perceptions of what sculpture can be.

SUSAN KNIGHT*

September 11 - October 10, 2021

Susan Knight is an Omaha-based paper and installation artist. Knight, using primarily an Xacto knife, distills the structures and systems found in nature into pattern compositions in two and three dimensions, and site-sensitive installations.

INDIRA FREITAS JOHNSON: THE RESONANCE OF EMPTINESS*

October 9 - November 14, 2021

In The Resonance of Emptiness, Indira Freitas Johnson explores the concept of emptiness and the interconnectedness of all things offering viewers an aesthetic experience of emptiness and stillness while exploring the shifting distinctions between strength and vulnerability, permanence, and decay, and the extraordinary and mundane.

DAN OLIVER: AFIRE*

October 16 - November 10, 2021

In his latest body of work, Dan Oliver explores the theme of fire in all its metaphorical complexity. Passion, rage, chaos, destructive power, transformation, danger, energy, life, hell, protest, wildfires and global warming—fire means so many things and we have a complicated relationship to it. Afire is scheduled to open in October 2021, the 150th anniversary of the Great Chicago Fire.

MATT IRIE*

November 20 - December 19, 2021

Matt Irie received his MFA from Northwestern University, Evanston (2002). Irie's paintings have been included in numerous group exhibitions throughout the US. Most recently Irie's work was included in group exhibitions at Alan Koppel Gallery in Chicago, IL and SUPERDUTCHESS (now Below Grand) in New York, NY.

* Exhibition funding provided by the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency, and the EAC's general membership.

 This project is partially supported by the Illinois Arts Council, a state agency, and a grant from the Evanston Arts Council an agency supported by the City of Evanston, IACA, and the NEA.

ADVANCED OPEN STUDIO (AOS) JEWELRY INDEPENDENT STUDY

Designed for advanced students who want to work on their own or with a small group of advanced students outside of class in unmonitored studio time. To be permitted to work independently in the studio during designated times, students will be trained in five one-hour authorization sessions, after which they will be evaluated and may be allowed to work independently. The AOS Coordinator will arrange rapid-fire demos, class outings, guest artists, and other events tailored to the group's needs and interests. Tuition credit will expire one year from the date the class or workshop is dropped and must be used in full for EAC class and/or workshop tuition. Credits may be transferred to another individual only with written notice.

CANCELLATIONS

Classes are cancelled when enrollment minimums are not reached. EAC encourages students to register early. Classes that do not meet enrollment minimums are cancelled three days before the first class, and students are notified by telephone. Full tuition will be refunded within three weeks. The Art Center reserves the right to change instructors, class structure, or to discontinue any class without incurring obligations. If a student is unable to attend a class period for any reason, the Art Center is not responsible for providing any make-up. Not attending class does not constitute an official drop or withdrawal from courses or cancellation of tuition or fees.

MISSED CLASSES

A make-up week is scheduled at the end of each term in the event a class session is cancelled by the EAC or the instructor. Make-up week is considered part of the term, and no refunds will be given for unattended scheduled classes during this week. There are no refunds, credits or make-ups for any other class sessions that were held as scheduled and missed by the student (student "no-show").
